

Nothing in this policy shall be construed to preclude the University and faculty and students from entering into written agreements governing the use, licensing, or sharing of licensing revenues with each other with respect to works, whether such works are owned by the University, the faculty, or students under this policy.

The president or delegate shall implement this policy and maintain appropriate policies and procedures to administer it.

---

December 14, 2007

2023

Portions of Intellectual Property adopted October 8, 1999.